FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*

Sawdust Art Festival 2008 At A Glance

- What: The 42nd Annual Sawdust Art Festival
- 200 Laguna Beach artists exhibit and sell their original artwork: ceramics, art glass, textiles and clothing, paintings and prints, jewelry, photography, wood and metal art, scrimshaw and more, in a beautiful canyon-side eucalyptus grove.
  - Artist demonstrations including glass blowing.
  - Art classes and activities for children and adults.
  - Three stages of live entertainment.
  - Three cafés and the Sawdust Saloon.
- Fun Fact: This artists' village is built anew each summer – in the spring the artists are assigned booth spaces by lottery and then build their booths to fit the spaces which may even include a tree!
- When: June 27 – August 31, 10 a.m. – 10 p.m. seven days/week
- Where: 935 Laguna Canyon Road, Laguna Beach, CA 92651
- Parking Tip: Park in the City-run Act V lot on Laguna Canyon Road, about ½ mile inland from the festival for $7 and take the FREE trolley to the Sawdust.
